Bighorn in Palm Desert

Offers Exclusive Resort Living
With a Limited Number of Homesites and Residences

Bighorn is a complete lifestyle of luxury extending far beyond its spectacular residences. A private community and golf club situated at the base of the Santa Rosa Mountains, approximately three miles south of Highway 111 and El Paseo in South Palm Desert, the exclusive community offers a limited number of custom homesites from $700,000s, and residences from $1.395 million.

Members enjoy the Tom Fazio-designed Canyons Golf Course and the Arthur Hills-designed championship Mountain Course. There is a European spa and salon with state-of-the-art Fitness Center, two new world-class jets to transport members to and from Bighorn, and a 40,000 square foot club house with golf shop, luxurious locker rooms, swimming pools, tennis courts, and indoor/outdoor dining. There is a full calendar of social events and a variety of concierge services to enhance everyday living.

Experience Bighorn by visiting their website at www.bighorn.com or by contacting Bighorn properties at 800.551.5578 for a private tour.

926 Andreas Canyon Drive: This 6,066 square foot, five bedroom plus office estate features a living room with state-of-the-art pocket doors, an intimate fireplace, spectacular views and a lavish mahogany ceiling. The master retreat includes a secluded patio and a lavish bath with spa tub. Features also include an elaborate, covered outdoor living area, a charming detached guest house, infinity edge pool and spa with dramatic views overlooking the 4th hole and lake of the Canyons course. $4,750,000.

201 Palm Ridge: This grand estate of five bedrooms and five and one half baths spans 9,933 square feet. The home highlights Bighorn's signature blend of casual living and extraordinary design, displayed in a unique floor plan. The long entry driveway provides a private approach leading to the beautifully landscaped motor courtyard with air-conditioned four-car, two-golf cart garage. French doors open to a magnificent foyer with large skylight illuminating iron grille railing along the spiral staircase. Rich wood cabinetry and hickory pecan floors accent the classic gourmet kitchen with professional gas range, double dishwashers, walk-in pantry and large center island. The master suite features built-in media center and a romantic sitting room with fireplace. Also, guests have a choice of two interior suites each featuring sitting nooks, private patios and full baths with walk-in closets. $7,500,000.
